The role

We are seeking a 'Video Content Specialist' to join our team. You will play a key role in creating engaging videos that communicate our campaigns in an accessible and impactful way. Key responsibilities include:

- Conceptualize, film and edit short-form videos for campaigns
- Collaborate with the Movement team to craft accessible messaging
- Support outreach efforts to underserved communities through visual storytelling (demystifying transit terms and concepts)

What we offer for this position

- Ability to work from home/remotely 2 days a week
- Prospect of being part of a high-energy, adept and close-knit team
- Ongoing personal growth and professional development opportunities

You are

- A visual storyteller
- Passionate about sustainable transportation and equity
- Attuned to micro details while seeing the big picture

You have

- Current undergraduate enrollment at an ACE-WIL accredited, public BC post-secondary institution
- Canadian citizenship, PR or refugee status (legally allowed to work in Canada)
- Demonstrated experience in video production (shooting, editing, storyboarding)

- Familiarity with professional editing software (Premiere Pro, Final Cut Pro)
- Strong communication skills

Nice-to-haves

- Fluency in another language, in addition to English

How to apply?

Please email your resume, cover letter and portfolio to wpo@digibc.org. Thank you so much for your interest in working for Movement!

Please contact us if you require any accommodation or support during the recruitment process.

We strongly encourage those who identify from groups who have been structurally excluded (Indigenous, Black and Racialized communities, 2SLGBTQIA+ communities, Disability communities, Non-Binary, Trans and Women Identified communities) to apply.

Movement organizes on the unceded, ancestral territories of many Indigenous peoples, including 10 local First Nations: qíćəý (Katzie), q̓w̓a:ńłəń (Kwantlen), kwik̓wə́ləm (Kwikwetlem), máthxwi (Matsqui), x̓wməθk̓wə́yəm (Musqueam), qiqéyt (Qayqayt), se'mya'me (Semiahmoo), Sk̓wx̓wú7mesh Úxwumixw (Squamish), scəw̓aθən məsteyəx̓w (Tsawwassen) and səlilwətał (Tsleil-Waututh). Transportation infrastructure has been used to take land from Indigenous peoples, and the reserve system has been used to isolate Indigenous peoples. Movement will engage with humility and solidarity in discussions on how transportation can be used for reconciliation.

*This position is part of DigiBC's Work Placement Program (<https://digibc.org/work-placement-program/>), which supports post-secondary students by providing experiential learning opportunities in animation, video, games, visual effects, and XR.
